

IP Scholarship Opportunity for Entering Students

Georgia State University College of Law Intellectual Property Scholarships

The College of Law annually awards three scholarships for entering first-year students who demonstrate an interest in and commitment to IP Law. One of these scholarships covers full-tuition (equivalent to in-state full-time tuition and fees) for three years of school. The two other scholarships are partial-tuition scholarships of $1000 for one year. These partial-tuition scholarships are non-renewable.

Applicants should submit a resume and a 500 word statement addressing their interest, commitment and achievements in IP Law. Applicants may also submit up to two letters of recommendation with their statement. A signed and dated Waiver of Confidentiality form, below, must also be submitted with the application materials. Acceptance to the Georgia State University College of Law is required to receive the scholarships.

Full tuition scholarship candidates must be available for interview. The recipient of this scholarship will also be expected to be available for meetings and promotional events.

Applications should be delivered by March 2nd to:

Please submit all materials electronically to Cheryl Jester-George, cjgeorge@gsu.edu by March 2, 2010.

Recipients will be informed of their awards by the beginning of April.
