

JURIS DOCTOR & MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

DUAL DEGREE

The J.D./M.B.A. dual degree program is offered by the College of Law and the J. Mack Robinson College of Business.

The needs of today's business clients are constantly changing, and those clients need their business lawyers at their side to counsel and assist them in navigating a dynamic legal environment. Having familiarity with business practices in the U.S. and abroad will position business lawyers for a successful and dynamic career.

With an innovative legal curriculum, one of the top-ranked business programs in the country and an ideal downtown Atlanta location, Georgia State is poised to prepare the next generation of business lawyers.

“I believe the J.D./M.B.A. program has made me a more well-rounded student and prepared me for practicing law. The leadership, marketing, accounting and communications courses offer a great complement to the coursework in the J.D. program, especially if you will be representing businesses in your practice, or managing your own firm.”

– Kassi Conley (J.D. '20/M.B.A. '20)

HOW TO APPLY

Most students apply to one degree program first and then apply to the second during their first year of study. Dual degree applicants must apply and be accepted to both programs. Acceptance into one program does not guarantee acceptance to the other.

J.D.

- law.gsu.edu/apply-jd
- LSAT is required

M.B.A.

- gradapply.gsu.edu/apply
- GMAT is required but will be waived for students already enrolled or admitted to the College of Law
