

LL.M. WITH A CONCENTRATION IN HEALTH LAW

FOR U.S.-TRAINED LAWYERS

The master of laws with a concentration in health law is designed to give U.S.-trained lawyers a competitive edge in their legal practice, policy or research careers.

Health law is a complex and rapidly changing field. From understanding laws governing patient rights, to ensuring health information privacy, to prevention of communicable diseases, to approval of new drugs and devices, attorneys are needed to address the wide range of legal, ethical and policy issues.

Through the Center for Law, Health & Society, Georgia State Law offers a top-ranked health law program taught by faculty with expertise in the regulation of health care business, public health, bioethics, health equity, health technology and global health.

CURRICULUM

This 26 credit hour program is designed for attorneys transitioning to health law from another area of the law or seeking to deepen their knowledge of a particular area of health law to enhance their existing practice or career.

REQUIRED COURSES

- Health Law: Quality & Access
- Health Law: Finance & Delivery

WRITING REQUIREMENT

A substantial writing project on a health law topic.

ELECTIVES

- 12 credit hours of health law electives
- 7 credit hours of general law electives

POTENTIAL CAREERS

- Legal counsel for health care or life sciences entities
- Medical malpractice attorneys
- Legal aid or non-profit advocates
- Government attorneys
- Health care compliance or risk managers
- Policymakers
- Researchers

#1

HEALTH LAW PROGRAM IN THE NATION*

BEST VALUE

LAW SCHOOL

FACULTY ADVISING

TAILORED TO STUDENTS'
PROFESSIONAL GOALS

* U.S. News & World Report 2021
 National Jurist 2021

LAW.GSU.EDU/LLM

“Our LL.M. program is designed to help legal professionals take their careers to the next level. We help U.S.-trained lawyers strengthen their expertise in the law.”

- Interim Dean Leslie Wolf

HOW TO APPLY

law.gsu.edu/apply-llm

Applicants must be U.S.-trained lawyers. The application requires a personal statement, curriculum vitae or resume, writing sample, all college/university transcripts and two letters of recommendation.

TUITION

RESIDENT

- $657 per credit hour

NONRESIDENT

- $1474 per credit hour

MANDATORY STUDENT FEES

- $1,121 per semester

ATLANTA ADVANTAGE

OUR LOCATION GIVES US AN EDGE. Located in the heart of downtown, Atlanta is home to world-renowned health care entities, public health leadership and innovative life science companies.

A FEW STEPS

- State Capitol
- Federal and state courts
- Major law firms and corporate offices
- Grady Health System
- Georgia Departments of Community Health and Public Health
- Regional offices of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
- Other federal, state and local government agencies

A FEW MILES

- Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
- Children’s Healthcare of Atlanta, Emory Healthcare, WellStar Health System and Northside Hospital
- American Cancer Society and other non-profit organizations
- Health insurance and health technology companies

*Based on 2020-2021 figures. Rates subject to change.

LAW.GSU.EDU/LLM

THE STATEWAY

ADMISSIONS

404-413-9200
lawllm@gsu.edu

ACADEMICS

Center for Law, Health
& Society