RE: [REDACTED]
I-765, Application for Employment Authorization

A [REDACTED]

DECISION

Reference is made to the Application for Employment Authorization (Form I-765) filed with U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) on February 25, 2020, in accordance with Title 8, Code of Federal Regulations (8 CFR) § 274a.12(c)(8). After consideration, it is ordered that Form I-765 be denied.

8 CFR § 274a.12(c)(8) allows for granting employment authorization to:

An alien who has filed a complete application for asylum or withholding of deportation or removal pursuant to 8 CFR part 208, whose application:

- (i) Has not been decided, and who is eligible to apply for employment authorization under § 208.7 of this chapter because the 150-day period set forth in that section has expired. Employment authorization may be granted according to the provisions of § 208.7 of this chapter in increments to be determined by ... [USCIS] and shall expire on a specified date; or
- (ii) Has been recommended for approval, but who has not yet received a grant of asylum or withholding or deportation or removal;

A review of your file and USCIS records indicates that you lodged or filed Form I-589, Application for Asylum and for Withholding of Removal, pursuant to 8 CFR § 208. However, Form I-589 was denied on June 21, 2018. A further search of USCIS and Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) records does not indicate that an appeal or motion to reopen or reconsider was filed on your application, or that an asylum application remains pending.

Therefore, you are not eligible for employment authorization under 8 CFR § 274a.12(c)(8).

There is no appeal from this decision. You may file a motion to reopen or reconsider. Your motion to reopen or reconsider must be filed on Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, within 30 days of the date of this notice (33 days if this notice is received by mail). For the latest information on filing location, fee, and other requirements, please review the Form I-290B instructions at <http://www.uscis.gov/forms>, call our USCIS Contact Center at 1-800-375-5283, or visit your local USCIS office. If USCIS does not receive a properly filed motion, this decision will become final.

This decision does not prevent you from filing any petition or application in the future.

Sincerely,

Gregory A. Richardson
