

Transactional Law Society Application

The Transactional Law Society exist to bring law students together who want to gain experimental learning as a transactional attorney. The Transactional Law Society provides a fun, safe, and challenging environment to learn from industry leaders, explore potential careers, and develop skills in the art of negotiation, contract drafting, and dispute resolution.

Society Members and Executive Board Leaders will be selected based on your resume and the answers to this application. Our goal is to create a group that will not only benefit from the experience but will contribute to both the Transaction Law Society and the broader GSU College of Law community. This application packet and your resume must be submitted to the Transactional Law Society at tls.gsu@gmail.com by midnight on Friday, April 14, 2023.

General Information

Name: _____ Student ID Number: _____

Current Year in Law School: _____ Phone Number: _____

Email Address: _____

Area(s) of Interest: _____

If selected for membership, are you interested in being a student coach? _____

List the Leadership Position(s) you are applying for in order of preference: _____

If selected for a leadership position, are you interested in competing in a competition? _____

Applicant Questions

1. Why are you interested in the Transactional Law Society? _____

2. How will you contribute to the Transactional Law Society and team competitions? _____

3. What transactional skills would you like to gain from participation in the Society? _____

4. Describe your previous leadership experience and how you will best serve your role.

5. Additional comments: _____